Title of the Activity	Class on Enhancing Communication Skills
Organizing agency/Department	Department of English
Date	14/07/2017
No. of students participated	50 students
Resource person	Students and Faculties of the Department
Outcome	To effectively communicate one's ideas and thoughts in English

During the summer vacation, the English Association of Mar Thoma College For Women, Perumbavoor organized a series of programs aimed at enhancing communication skills. The students and faculty members of the English Department actively participated in conducting these classes, specifically focused on English communication skills for children and women in the local community. The objective of these programs was to emphasize the importance of effective communication, as it plays a crucial role in both personal and professional relationships. By improving communication skills, individuals can foster deeper connections and understanding with others. It also enables them to avoid conflicts, find compromises, and make better decisions. The classes provided valuable training and guidance to the children and women of the neighborhood, equipping them with the necessary tools to enhance their communication abilities. Through these initiatives, the English Association aimed to empower individuals by imparting valuable skills that can positively impact their lives.

Each Voice Matters: Focussing on Gender Awareness & Rights of Gender Minorities

Title of the Activity	Each Voice Matters
Organising Agency/ Department	Department of English
Date	8 December 2020
No. of Students Participated	75
Resource Person
Outcome	To understand the various rights of gender minorities

A webinar titled "Each Voice Matters" was conducted on 8th December 2020 at 2.30 pm via Google Meet, focusing on gender awareness and the rights of gender minorities. The session witnessed the participation of 75 students. The primary objective of this program was to promote gender equality and women's empowerment. It aimed to provide girls with decision-making and life skills that would contribute to their development into womanhood. By raising awareness about gender issues and the rights of gender minorities, the webinar aimed to create a more inclusive and equitable society. The session served as a platform to engage students in discussions and activities related to gender awareness. It emphasized the significance of each individual's voice in shaping a more just and equal world for all genders.

Title of the Activity	La Femme
Organising Agency/ Department	Department of Zoology
Date	11 October 2020
No. of Students Participated	25
Resource Person
Outcome	To improve creative thinking & writing skills

In commemoration of the International Day of the Girl Child, we organized an event called "La Femme." The event featured an intercollegiate slogan writing contest and a Miss Cosmo contest exclusively for Mar Thoma College for Women (MTCW) students. Miss Lekshmi S. Nair, HR Lead at Vysheshika Pvt Ltd, and Ms. Supriya Susan Kurian, the college librarian, served as the judges. The slogan writing contest saw the participation of 25 contestants, with Shabna Yousaf from Sree Sankara, Kalady securing the first position, followed by Anju Anilkumar from MTCW in second place, and Aswathymol from Morning Star, Angamali, in third place. The Miss Cosmo contest attracted 11 participants, and Vrinda, an MSc. Zoology student, claimed the title of Miss Cosmo. Deva Renjini, a second-year B.Com Taxation student, emerged as the first runner-up, while Fathima Nazrin, also a second-year B.Com Taxation student, secured the second runner-up position.

Webinar on Physical Activity & Bone - Persuading women to exercise

Title of the Activity	Physical Activity & Bone-Persuading Women to Exercise
Organising Agency/ Department	Department of Physical Education
Date	9 January 2021
No. of Students Participated	112
Resource Person	Mr. Sudeesh C.S
Outcome	To get an insight about the importance of exercise

The Department of Physical Education arranged a webinar on 9th January 2021, titled "Physical Activity & Bone: Encouraging Women to Exercise." Mr. Sudheesh C. S., Assistant Professor at Lakshmibai National College of Physical Education, Thiruvananthapuram, served as the resource person for the webinar. The main purpose of this program was to emphasize the importance of maintaining physical fitness in order to prevent and manage noncommunicable diseases like heart disease, stroke, diabetes, and more. By advocating for regular exercise, especially among women, the webinar aimed to raise awareness about the impact of physical activity on bone health and overall well-being. During the session, participants gained valuable insights into the benefits of exercise and were encouraged to prioritize physical activity in their daily lives. The webinar served as a platform to educate attendees about the correlation between physical fitness and the prevention of various health conditions, empowering them to lead healthier lifestyles.

Interactive session for the Elimination of Violence Against Women

Title of the Activity	Interactive session as a part of International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women.
Organising agency/Department	College Union
Date	25 November 2021
Resource Person	Dr. Reshma Bharadwaj
Number of students participated	38
Outcome	To gain awareness of the violence and exploitation experienced by women in society, as well as the legal rights afforded to them.

The College Union of Mar Thoma College for Women organized an interactive session in the PG Seminar Hall at 2.00 pm on November 25, 2021, as part of the International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women. This day is celebrated annually to raise awareness and prevent physical and sexual violence faced by women in society. The theme for 2022 was "UNITE! Activism to end violence against women and girls." The session aimed to support and invest in strong, autonomous women's rights organizations and feminist movements, which play a crucial role in ending violence against women and girls. During the interactive session, discussions were held regarding the alarming increase in physical and sexual violence in recent years. Students actively shared their views on the topic and provided valuable suggestions. Various aspects of women's legal rights were also discussed during the session. Overall, the program proved to be beneficial for the students, raising awareness about the violence and exploitation faced by women in society, as well as providing insights into their legal rights.
