Report 2021-2022

Two meetings of the Anti-Ragging Committee were convened during the academic year 2021-22 to review its functioning and also to plan further course of action. The Convenor of the Committee explained the relevance of the Committee and also encouraged the members to continue maintaining vigil against acts of ragging in the campus.

The College Union organised an Orientation Programme for the students at the commencement of the academic year. The session aimed at motivating students and help them set better goals during the new academic year. During this session, they were also familiarized with the institutional rules and regulations inclusive of anti-ragging measures, what constitutes ragging and the consequences to be faced. Heads of departments and class teachers also address the students regarding this matter in department specific meetings. Anti -ragging documentaries are screened in the college library to create awareness among students. Students are also mandatorily required to fill the Anti-Ragging affidavit on the Anti- Ragging website of the UGC. The committee members' names are made available on both the college website and in the handbook, ensuring convenient access for students seeking to contact them, if necessary.

Regarding matters relating to complaints from students, no cases of ragging has been reported during the academic year.
