The CSIR-UGC NET/JRF in Mathematical Sciences coaching classes for the academic year 2017-2018 commenced on 12 October 2017. The classes facilitated an invaluable scientific method of CSIR-UGC NET/JRF coaching in critical analysis of the whole syllabus of CSIR-UGC NET/JRF. The learning environment for CSIR-UGC NET/JRF coaching provides a platform where all students come together and compete for the best coaching to achieve their goals and ambitions.

The classes were engaged by Mr. Gopikrishna S. Nair, the faculty member of the Department. The intensive coaching was given to 4 students from second year M.Sc. Mathematics. 37 hours of classes were given to the students on Saturdays (9.30 am-3.30 pm) and after the working hours (3.30 pm-5.00 pm) of the college. Most of the classes were held in October and November before the commencement of the CSIR-UGC NET/JRF exam in December. The classes focussed primarily on solving previous year CSIR-UGC NET/JRF in Mathematical Sciences question papers and discussing the basic concepts involved behind solving the problem. The learning materials containing the core concepts in Linear Algebra, Real Analysis, Abstract Algebra, Complex Analysis and Differential Equations were given to the students and they were encouraged to solve the problems by properly identifying the concepts behind the problem. In addition, group discussions and tests were conducted to realise their potential and build confidence. The classes were finished in November due to the beginning of the third semester M.Sc. university examinations in December.
