

COLLEGE MOTTO

“The motto of the College is ‘The Truth Shall Make You Free’. It is based on the teachings of Jesus Christ. “You will know the truth and the truth will set you free”. Jesus proclaims that ultimate freedom is possible only through ultimate truth”

All the religion of the world place great emphasis on the practice of truth. God is truth and it is this truth that frees us from darkness and evil which leads us to light and virtue. The age-old Indian prayer is

“Asato ma sat gamaya

Thamaso ma jyothir gamaya

Mrithyo ma amritham gamay”

Tagore prays to God to lead his country “into that heaven of Aof India proved to the whole world that the way of truth leads to freedom. His life was a story of his experiments with truth. Those who close their eyes to truth and scorn and scoff at it can never enjoy true freedom. Truth is often associated with beauty and joy. “Sathyam, Sivam, Sundaram” is the Indian concept of the supreme values. “Beauty is truth, truth beauty” says keats. Pursuit of truth is the pursuit of knowledge. Knowledge leading to wisdom gives man freedom from ignorance and folly.

THE EMBLEM

The emblem of the College symbolizes the aim and purpose of this college-the pursuit of academic excellence and the development of the personality of women students in a Christian atmosphere. The girls (symbolized by the banged hand) develop their intellectual (symbolized by the book ) and artistic(symbolized by the veena) faculties in the Christian atmosphere (represented by the cross) of the College. They are called upon to be torch bearers to the coming generation.
