

Inclusion, Human Values & Situatedness

Inclusivity is the cornerstone of our ethos, as we strive to foster a welcoming and equitable environment that embraces individuals from all walks of life. Our land has gained renown for its open-mindedness and respect towards people, regardless of their background, race, gender, or beliefs. The influx of migrants, drawn to our region's thriving business hub, has further enriched our cultural tapestry, bestowing upon us a distinct and diverse identity. We wholeheartedly embrace this wave of change, recognizing its transformative influence on our institution. MarThoma College for Women is committed to genuine efforts and proactive initiatives in nurturing an inclusive environment for our students. Furthermore, in our endeavour to foster communal unity and harmony, we joyfully celebrate a multitude of festivals representing various religions and cultures. From Onam and Christmas to Ramzan, Eid, Holi, Republic Day, and International Women's Day, these festivities unite us, allowing us to embrace and appreciate the rich tapestry of our cultural heritage. At MarThoma College for Women, we steadfastly believe that inclusivity is not just a concept, but a lived reality, where every individual is respected, valued, and celebrated.

The practice of inclusive education is categorised under different heads such as religious /cultural harmony, Instilling human values, National integration strategies, Parliamentary or electoral engagements.

Religious & Cultural Harmony

Recognising the imperative need for mutual understanding & trust between people from diverse socio-religious background, the institution wholeheartedly promotes celebrations of all religious festivals. We have a pluralistic approach of accepting & respecting the philosophies & spiritual traditions of all religions and at the same time devout of our religious conviction too. We maintain & strengthen our communal harmony by celebrating Christmas, Onam, Holi etc with all its pomp & splendour.

Instilling Human Values

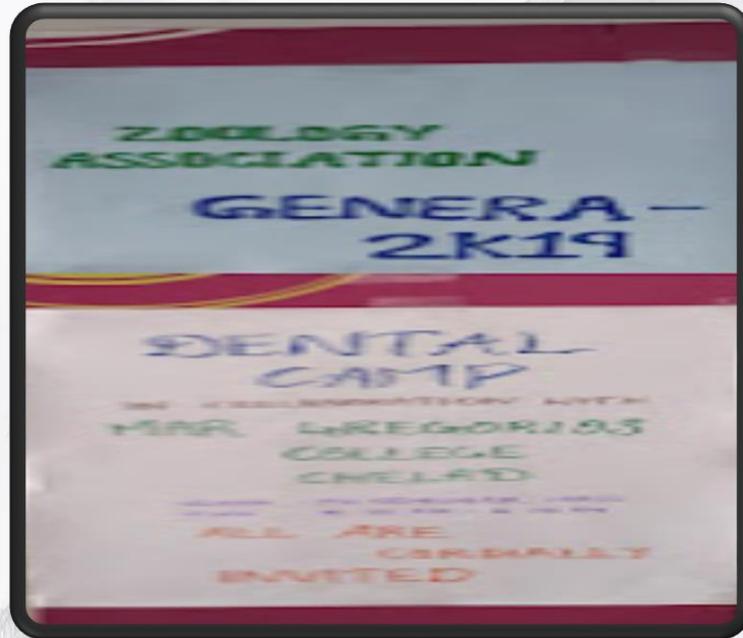

The institution realises the importance of inculcating values as it prepares their mental conditioning & strengthens their determination to overcome tough conditions & situations. The inner peace & relaxation that one achieves from helping others cannot be compared to materialistic happiness. This happiness boosts confidence & motivates them to do more such good work.

To instil a spirit of service & sense of duty with dedication & devotion in the minds of youth, YRC encourages students to extend their humanitarian services to the society by conducting blood donation camps, medical camps, eye camps etc.

National Integration

Every year, our college community comes together in recognition, commemoration & celebration of significant national & international days. By acknowledging & celebrating these days, we can foster a more inclusive culture & can increase the visibility of diversity within the campus. We celebrate International, National & Regional days of significance to broaden & enrich the perspectives of our young minds.

Electoral/Parliamentary Engagements

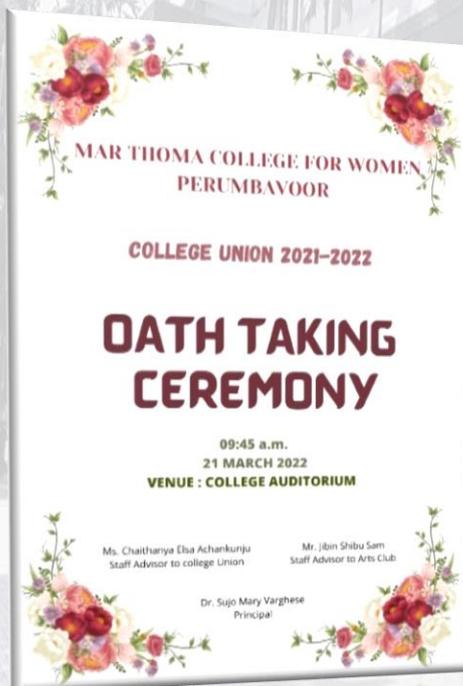

Elections are a fundamental aspect of democratic systems, where people exercise their right to vote and participate in the selection of their representatives and leaders. In a democracy, elections serve as a crucial mechanism to ensure the fair and accountable governance of a nation. They offer citizens the opportunity to voice their opinions and influence the direction of their country or institution.

Recognizing the significance of democratic principles and fostering a sense of civic responsibility among its students & staff members, our college firmly believes in upholding the democratic spirit. As a result, the Electoral /Parliamentary Engagements can be categorised into three:

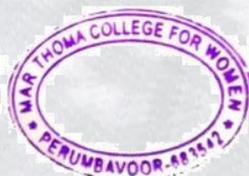

College Elections

Staff Participation in Assembly/Parliament Election Process

Parliamentary Literacy Club

College Union Elections are organised, enabling students to actively participate in the selection of their representatives. During these elections, students are encouraged to become candidates and contest for various positions within the college union. The election process involves open nominations, campaigning, debates, and finally, casting votes. Through this active engagement, students gain a practical understanding of democratic values and the importance of active citizenship.

Parliamentary Literacy Club

The Parliamentary Literacy Club takes proactive measures to foster political and legislative awareness among its students by organizing Model Parliaments. Through collaboration with the Institute of Parliamentary Affairs, Government of Kerala, these model parliament sessions are conducted to provide students with a hands-on understanding of the legislative process. The objective is to cultivate a deeper consciousness about the workings of democracy and governance. During these mock parliaments, students are given the opportunity to simulate the roles of parliamentarians, ministers, and other stakeholders. They engage in lively debates, propose bills, and deliberate on various issues, mirroring the real legislative proceedings. Expert guidance and resources from the Institute of Parliamentary Affairs help enrich these sessions and provide students with valuable insights into the complexities and intricacies of lawmaking. By participating in these model parliaments, students gain practical knowledge of how bills become laws, the importance of consensus-building, and the significance of constructive dialogue in the democratic process. It enhances their critical thinking, public speaking, and leadership skills while nurturing a sense of civic responsibility. Moreover, the collaborative efforts with the Institute of Parliamentary Affairs strengthen the college's commitment to fostering well-informed and engaged citizens. Students are encouraged to stay informed about current affairs, analyse policy issues, and actively participate in discussions, thus empowering them to contribute meaningfully to the nation's progress. Through this initiative, the college not only equips students with academic knowledge but also nurtures their sense of social awareness and active citizenship. By understanding the legislative process in a practical context, students are better prepared to navigate the complexities of governance and make informed decisions as responsible future leaders and voters. In conclusion, the college's organization of model parliament sessions in association with the Institute of Parliamentary Affairs, Government of Kerala, represents a commendable

Model Parliament

effort to develop politically conscious and engaged citizens who can actively contribute to the democratic fabric of the nation.
